

Fall 2012 Nebraska Quilt Retreats With Sheila Reinke

Come learn this unique method of making 8-point lone stars without using a single template or single "Y" seam. This is a great way to make diamond blocks for those who don't enjoy the time-consuming methods like "Y" seams. This quilt will be made with 2.5" strips. Don't let those stars intimidate you anymore! Instead of four stars, we will enlarge this pattern to make six stars total using a combination of green, brown, gold, purple and blue Hoffman Batiks.

Sheila Reinke, quilting and sewing enthusiast and instructor, will be presenting a quilt retreat in the fall of 2012 in Ashland, Nebraska. Sheila has been teaching for more than 25 years and loves seeing that 'Aha!' moment as she teaches someone a new technique. Formerly a demonstrator for Hancock Fabrics, Sheila has now moved to the internet. Keep up to date with info about the quilt retreat at her blog @ www.TheHeartofSewing.com.
